

Adoption Information Meetings — Online

DILLON
INTERNATIONAL

Affiliated with Buckner

Want to know more about international adoption? Don't know where to begin?

If you are just beginning to think about adoption as an option for building your family, but are unsure whether international adoption is the right choice for you, then we encourage you to view our FREE online Adoption Information Meeting.

In the comfort of your own home, a Dillon staff representative will guide you through an overview of international adoption and the adoption services Dillon International has to offer adoptive families.

You will receive information about our adoption programs from China, Ghana, Haiti, Hong Kong, India, Japan, and South Korea along with our programs in Ethiopia, Russia, and Honduras through our affiliation with Buckner International.

Highlights of the online seminar:

- History of Dillon International
- Benefits of working with Dillon
- Advantages of our post-adoption services
- Why families choose international adoption
- What is the Hague Treaty?
- General family requirements
- Steps in adoption process
- Introduction to our country programs
- Adoption can be affordable for your family
- Taking the first step in the process
